SULLIVAN LEFT ALONE, WARDEN FREELY ADMITS

Banker Convict Permitted Five Hours of Freedom in New York City.

MR. BALDWIN HEARS McCORMICK'S STORY

OSSINING, N. Y., Oct. 29 .- Gov. Glynn's investigation into the newest Sing Sing scandal, a charge that special favors were granted by Thomas J. McCormick, the deposed warden, to David A. Sullivan, who wrecked the Union Bank in

The witnesses were Warden McCormick and his secretary, William J. Watson. John B. Riley, State Superintendent of Prisons, will testify to-morrow. Mr Baldwin said to-night that he had no present intention of calling Sullivan. He will report to Gov. Glynn to-morrow night, but that does not mean that the investigation will end to-morrow.

Mr. Baldwin brought out these facts to-day: Sullivan was left alone in New York

four or five hours while the warden's car was being repaired. He was picked as the warden's chauffeur because "h. had the appearance of being a gentleman." He wore a chauffeur's coat and cap over his convict uniform. He drove Mrs. McCormick and the warden's two daughters about Yonkers without a

Sullivan slept in the hospital dormitory. His hard labor in Sing Sing consisted in doing stenography and driving the warden's car. He drove the warden and Deputy State Comptroller Michael J. Walsh to four or five polling places in Yonkers on primary night.

Business Trips Not Shown.

It was not shown that Sullivan ever drove the car alone except that he sat in it alone in front of the warden's business while enjoying special privileges failed. Mr. Baldwin tried hard to show that it was Sullivan's money that paid for the warden's car, but this Louise D. Burkhardt. Sullivan's former stenographer. Miss Louise D. Burkhardt, Sullivan's former stenographer, through whom it has been charged that he transacted business while in Sing Sing, called to see Sullivan at the prison, according to the testimony, but Sullivan did not see heroutside. Warden McCormick denied that he was ever in a hotel bar with Sullivan. District Attorney Cronsey of Kinge.

District Attorney Cropsey of Kings county and his assistant, Louis Goldstein, who have been conducting a Grand Jury investigation in Brooklyn to prove that a larceny was committed in Brooklyn by Sullivan since he has been in Sing Sing, were on hand for the afternoon service. were on hand for the afternoon session.
Mr. Cropsey suggested many questions and he has provided Mr. Baldwin with the names of several witnesses for whom subpœnas were sent out to-night. The Grand Jury investigation in Brooklyn has een halted during the proceedings here.

Mr. Baldwin accepted suggestions for

"There are many more questions that might be asked this witness," said Mr. Cropsey, as Mr. Watson left the stand this afternoon. Mr. Baldwin said ne would consult with Mr. Cropsey about the relevancy of these questions to the state's investigation and directed Mr. Watson to be ceady to go on the stand again at 10 o'clock to-morrow morning.

Mr. Goldstein was very anxious to have Mr. Watson interrogated about the reception accorded Mr. Goldstein when he came to the prison last Saturday to ask came to the prison last Saturday he prison last Saturday to ask privileges accorded Sullivan in the District Attorney of Kings. Watson went out by a rear door and said he would return, but never came back," said Mr. Goldstein. "Well, I don't blame Mr. Watson for not wanting to be questioned by Mr. Goldsaid Mr. Baldwin. "That is all.

Warden McCormick, who was suspended yesterday, was the first witness to-day. He had been the warden of Sing Sing for four months, he said. He was asked warden's automobile was owned by the State.

"That will require an explanation," he said. "After I had been connected with the prison two months I notified Supt. the prison two months I notified Supt. Riley that I needed an automobile for business. Mr. Riley agreed that it was necessary, but it could not be purchased before October I, the beginning of the purchased before October I, the beginning of the purchased was a least that the purchased was the second second to the purchased by the purchased was the purchased to be before October 1, the beginning of the new fiscal year. I bought one with funds of my own."

Q. Did you use Sullivan as chauffeur?

Q. In addition to his services as stenographer? A. Yes.
Q. When did you begin to use him as chauffeur? A. The first part of Septem-

Q. How did you know he could drive au automobile? A. I questioned him. He told me he could drive a car.

Day and Night Trips,

Mr. McCormick said Sullivan received instruction from a man sent by an automobile company for one day about roads near Ossining. Mr. Watson, roads near Ossining. Mr. Watson, the warden's secretary, went with Sullivan and the instructor, Mr. McCormick said, but McCormick did not ride in the car until three or four days later. Q. Did he run the car at night as well

Q. Where to? A. To Yonkers, New Q. Do you mean Yonkers and New York city? A. No, just Yonkers.

Q. Did he ever drive to New York city? A. No, sir.
Mr. McCormick later admitted that Sullivan had on one occasion run the car to

New York city.

O. Where do you live? A. 46 Latham

Q. Did he drive you to your home? And to other places? A. To my office

What business? A. I have a steam

PRESIDENT URGES LESSONS OF WAR ON BUSINESS MEN

Charles Ferguson Has Message From White House That Cooperation, Not Outside Influence, Will Bring Prosperity.

A message direct from President Wilson that "the Administration expects a great revival in American economic life to proceed from the spontaneous enterprise of the business men themselves, and the most cordial consideration." has no notion that any very grave or affirmative change can be wrought by legal pressure from the outside," is being carried to the bankers and business men of the country by Charles Ferguson, actng as the representative of Mr. Wilson and of the Department of Commerce.

Mr. Ferguson, who is now carrying out a campaign of education among the busiess men of New York, said yesterday that he will lay before representative organizations and individuals the results of he study he has made of the relations van, who wrecked the Union Bank in Brooklyn, began here to-day with Stephen C. Baldwin of Brooklyn as the between business and politics in Europe, and will tell how the lessons drawn from the great European catastrophe may be applied here. As a representative of the department of Commerce he will lay par-icular emphasis upon the work of the oureau of foreign and domestic comnerce of that Department, asking the mer-hants of the country for their coopera-ion in making the bureau the biggest hing of its kind, and inviting the freest > on to the business men of the country Ferguson bears the following letter om President Wilson:

> "The bearer of this letter, Mr. Charles the Department of Commerce of he United States. His duties involve the various business organizations.

was familiar with the garb of Sing Sing. Sullivan could not be distinguished from a citizen. Q. Do you know a woman named Miss

Q. Do you know that she lives in A. Yes, sir; about one mile from my home.

Q. Did you ever know Sullivan to go o her house?

A. No, sir.

o her house? A. No, sir.
Q. Did you ever know Sullivan to meet ier? A. No, sir.
Q. Did you ever send Sullivan on er-ands when he had no one with him? A. No, sir. Either myself or my family, consisting of my wife and two daughters, were with him.

Mr. McCormick said there were nearly 1.600 prisoners in Sing Sing and that statements of their former occupations are taken when they are brought to the He presumed there were many chauffeurs there, but would not have spe-

of the Getty House in Yonkers? A. No,

Q. Do you remember an occasion when you left Sullivan in the car and found afterward that he was looking for you? A. I read of that in the newspapers, but I never heard of it.

Q. Did Sullivan tell you he was looking for you at any time? A. No, sir. Q. Do you know a policeman in Yonkers named George Ford? A. Yes, sir,

Indoors by 11 o'Clock,

The witness did not recall meeting Ford in Yonkers late one night when Sul livan was driving the car. District At-torney Cropsey's investigation has tried to show that Sullivan met Ford in Yonkers and asked the policeman if he had seen McCormick. Mr. McCormick did not recall that Sullivan was ever out with th present at the hearing, including Mr. Cropsey, but Mr. Cropsey evidently thought that Gov. Glynn's investigator was not going into the subject deeply enough.

Meets Cropsey Objection.

Meets Cropsey Objection. Cashin, clerk of Westchester county, to Sullivan, he said.

Q. Did you ever attend to any business ear? A. Not particularly electioneering

Q. These rides were then in some degree for election purposes? A. On pri-mary day I took the car with Sullivan sitting beside me on the seat and went to vote. I met Michael J. Walsh and to-gether we visited three or four, perhaps five, polling places.

Mr. McCormick said he had no state-ment to make to the investigator, and Mr. Baldwin invited those present to suggest questions. He read into the record the commitment of Sullivan by Judge Crane, which was for grand larceny in the first degree and sentenced Sullivan to not less than two years and not more than four years and three months at "hard labor." Then these questions were Then these questions were

Q. Did you ever enter the barroom of the Getty Square Hotel or the Getty House in company with Sullivan? A. No.

O. Some suggestion has been made that Sullvan furnished the money to buy the automobile. Is that so? A. No, sir.

Passed Afternoon in New York Q. Has Sullivan ever been in New York your knowledge? A. Once in Septemer during the day we drove to the Cadillac garage to have the car repaired. We got there about 1 or 2 P. M. and left

Q. Did you remain with Sullivan? A. took a walk around town and came ack. Sullivan remained with the car. Did you ever go to any road houses with Sullivan in the car? A. No, sir.
Mr. McCormick said he did not know how many times Miss Burkhardt had visited Sullivan. He said she had never applied to him for special permission make frequent visits. Sullivan was permitted to use the public telephone, he

Mr. McCormick was on the stand just an hour. When the hearing was resumed at 2 P. M. William J. Watson, secretary to Mr. McCormick, was called. He bought the automobile for Mr. McCor-mick, he said. He saw this $2,100 car in the window marked $1,800 and told his superior about it

Q. When you paid for the car, did you to alone? A. Yes.
Q. How did you pay for it? A. Cash. Q. Who gave you the cash? A. Warden fcCormick.

Mr. Watson testified that M. J. Lally, owner of the Lally Hotel, 9 Palisade avenue, Yonkers, gave the money to McCormick. It was brought out that although Mr. McCormick paid cash for the car ad a bank account in Yonkers,

Bills of Large Denomination.

Q. When the money was paid in cash by Lally to McCormick, what was the Q. What business? A. I have a steam fitting business there.
Q. When you went into your office or house, did you leave him unattended in the car? A. He was unattended, except that he was in full view of the house or office as the case might be.
Q. Was he attired other than as an ordinary chauffeur? A. He was attired as I found him attired when I took charge of Sing Sing, except for a coat and a cap.

Like an Ordinary Citizen.

Warden McCormick explained that the present prison garb was of gray and that

A. I made here and the present prison garb was of gray and that Sullivan had a regulation suit on, except that it was covered over with the chauffour's coat. He admitted that unless one Q. Did McCormick tell you to tell Mal-

Studies in Europe. Mr. Ferguson was for many years an editorial writer on a New York paper and he is a member of the New York bar. He explained yesterday that he has spent the last year in Europe making for President Wilson and the Department of Commerce a careful study of economic condi-

"These studies," said Mr. Ferguson stand in some measure the great catastrophe that has befailen Europe and to apply the lessons here. The President has sent me to tell the business communities face to face those lessons. I am also to emphasize the fact that such legal pressure as is applied is in its nature temporary and provisional; the big things are to be done by the business men and bankers themselves."

Mr. Ferguson laid emphasis on the part of his mission that has to do with seeking information. He means, he said, to learn as he hopes to teach, and to secure cooperation from business men the country over that will be instrumental in making the bureau of foreign and domestic commerce of tremendous value to business. He will visit New Orleans, Chicago and San Francisco and perhaps other cities. Ferguson, is a friend of mine in whose character and gifts I have peculiar confidence. He is acting as the representative of the character and gifts I have peculiar confidence. He is acting as the representative of the character and gifts I have peculiar confidence. He has no prearranged schedule to follow and he will remain here indefinitely, carloy not to testify? A. No. Q. Why did you do it? A. No reason should have done it at all, not a par-Burkhardt? A. Yes, str. I met her at The hearing will be resumed at 10 A. M.

GOVERNOR COMMENTS.

Says District Attorney Cropsey Once Retained Mr. Baldwin.

. Glynn made the following comment on the Sullivan case here last night: "Mr. Cropsey is criticising the appoint-ment of Mr. Baldwin to investigate the

"That was long after the indictment of Grout and Sullivan, but Mr. Cropsey evidently thought well enough of Mr. Baldwin then. I would like to call attention The benefit performance for the fund "That was long after the indictment of was Mayor.

"I would like to call attention also to what the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court thinks of Mr. Baldwin. The division of Prooklyn appointed Mr. Baldwin to direct the most important investigation in years arising between a Supreme Court Justice and the Brooklyn Bar Asso. Court Justice and the Brooklyn Bar Association. I don't want to mention any names, but you know what case I refer Sullivan Cashier Quits Regiment. Lieut.-Col. James T. Ashley of the Thirteenth Regiment, Brooklyn, has tendered his resignation to Gov. Glynn and re-quested an honorable discharge. He has been associated with the regiment since 1884 and it has been understood that he was a candidate for the Colonelcy. He was cashier of the falled Union Bank, under David A. Sullivan and Edward M. Grout. He is under indictment.

DISS DEBAR'S SUCCESSOR WANTS HER FREEDOM

of electioneering when Sullivan was in the Seventy-Year-Old Wife of Frank Jackson Says He Hypnotized Her.

> A suit by Mrs. Harriet Cadman Jackson to annul her marriage to Frank Dutton Jackson, alias Francis Wright, once the husband of Ann O'Delia Diss Debar, who got part of the fortune of Luther R. Marsh, a wealthy lawyer, many years ago, was tried yesterday by Supreme Court Justice Glegerich. The court reserved decision, but indicated that Jack son's record from Scotland Yard was sufficient to justify a decree. When last heard > from Jackson was in jail in Canada Mrs. Jackson, who is 70 years old, said she first met the defendant last November, she first met the detendant has November when he got her interested in the "Theocratic Unity and Purity League." Not long afterward he proposed marriage and > day after our marriage he began to hypnotize me," said the plaintiff. rubbed my forehead and gave me treat-ment which he said would make me im-mortal. He said that unless I married him I would be destroyed, and he got me so completely in his power that I not only married him but gave him large sums of

Her attorney then offered records show-Her attorney then offered records showing that Jackson has served fifteen years in Dartmoor prison, England, and that with the aid of a woman known to Scotland Yard as "The Swan" he organized the "Theocratic Unity and Purity League." Girls were enticed to the rooms of this organization, and it was on the testimony of one of the victims that both Witch. one of the victims that both Wright and this woman were convicted.

SAYS MURPHY BOSSED PRISON.

Former Warden Clancy Gives This as Reason for Quitting.

James M. Clancy, former warden of Sing Sing, gave out a statement yesterday saying that the reason he resigned as warden was because Charles F. Murphy dominated the State prisons and Gov. Glynn and Deputy State Comptroller Michael J. Walsh worked with Murphy in regulating the affairs of the pris said that the principal cause of lancy said that the principal cause or quitting the post was the interference regime is now being investigated. There were several attempts, said Clancy, to get out as warden without public fric-

Mr. Clancy told of a visit by Mitchell May, Secretary of State, and Sigmund Levy of Brooklyn to offer him the position of First Deputy Secretary of State. A month later Clancy said a Tammany district leader told him he was too far removed from the sphere of active polities and offered him the chief clerkship of The Bronx County Court.

Stenographers' Union Recruiting.

A meeting was held in Wall street, near the Stock Exchange, yesterday to win members for the Stenographers, Type-writers and Accountants Union. The speakers were Miss Helen Marot and Miss Violet Pike of the Women's Trade Union League, J. P. Boyle, president of the union, and Morris Simon.

GIVEN BY T. F. RYAN

Financier's Gift and Other Contributions Swell Fund to $246,997.

RED CROSS TOTAL $293,627

$10,000 yesterday to the Belgian Relief Fund. This, with an anonymous contribution of $2,000, an initialled contribution of $2,000 and another of $1,000, with a long list ranging from 10 cents up to $500, ties. When the vote was taken Davenbrought the total for the day to $23,239.94, port led, Sulzer was second, Whitman making the full amount collected to date third and Glynn, fourth.

date of, $293,627.93. Of this amount $796.30 was collected last Sunday at the religious service conducted by the New York Commercial Tercentenary Commis-sion and $575.74 came from the Cathedral of St. John the Divine.

The Staats-Zeitung has forwarded to Mr. Schiff $1,342, as the proceeds of Robinson's travelogues at Carnegle Hall on Monday and Tuesday. It was an-nounced that additional contributions of $3,000 each had been received at the national headquarters of the American Red Cross from Mrs. Redfield Proctor and Miss Emily Dutton Proctor. Contributions for the maintenance of the American Ambulance Hospital in the American Ambulance Hospital in Paris amounted to $295, bringing the total to date up to $108,136.64. Mrs. Whitney Warren announced con-tributions of $82.55 yesterday to the ladies' committee of the The George Society will send supplies to Lon-don to-morrow by the Minnehaha. This shipment consists of 390 hospital shirts, This 1,220 mufflers, 60 pillow cases, 1,284 pairs of socks, 130 pairs of gloves, 30 pairs of wristlets, 300 woollen undershirts, 300 woollen drawers and 100 sling bandages. Sir Johnston Forbes-Robertson, the English lish actor, is selling his autographed photograph for $1 and turning the pro-ceeds over to the Prince of Wales's national relief fund. Any one desiring a copy should apply to Neville G. Higham, honorary secretary, 38 Wall street.

A number of prominent actors and actresses will take part in a matinee performance to be given at the Lyceum Theatre on November 13 for the benefit of Theatre on November 13 for the benefit of ment of Mr. Baldwin to investigate the Sullivan case, and yet on January 28, 1913, Mr. Cropsey retained Mr. Baldwin from popular plays. Among those who to file objection to the probating of the will of his own (Cropsey's) uncle, Charles W. Church.

"The area of November 13 for the decidence of the Sullivan to investigate the First has a number of sketches and scenes will be a number of sketches and scenes will take part are Olive Wyndham. Janet will take part are Olive Myndham. Janet Beecher, Douglas Fairbanks, Patricia Collinge, William Faversham, David Bispham, Andrew Medical Research > of the Committee of Mercy which was to have been given at the Park Theatre on 3 has been postponed until No The change of date has neces-November sitated a change in the list of those who will appear. Lonely Haskell will have charge of the entertainment and the folcharge of the chickannied to take part:

> lowing artists have promised to take part:
> Holbrook Blinn, Olga Petrova, Kitty Gordon, Joan Sawyer, Elizabeth Murray, Laddie Cliff, Emma Carus, Ray and Hazel
> Cox, Irving Berlin, Harry Fox and Yansci
> Dolly, Martin Brown and Roszika Dolly

and Carter De Haven.
Contributions to the Committee of Mercy yesterday amounted to $1,274.56. In addi-tion to the Park Theatre benefit the Committee of Mercy is cooperating with the Belgian relief committee in arranging a benefit performance to be given at the Strand Theatre on the afternoon of November 24. Mrs. August Belmont is chair-man of the committee of arrangements. Mrs. Martin H. Glynn, wife of the Governor, will pour tea this afternoon at the Red Cross bazaar at the Liberty Theatre. There will be dancing. Mrs. Anson Stokes, Mrs. Oliver D. Bridgman, Mrs. Nelson H Burr, Mrs. George R. Dyer, Mrs. Dudley Field Malone, Mrs. George Gordon Battle nd Mrs. Stephen H. P. Pell will be pat To-night will be "cotton night." South dies and dances will be offered by Al Brown's Social Entertainment Club negro organization. Lois Ewell, Kath leen Howard and Louis Kreidler of the Century Opera Company will grace The EVENING SUN Cotton Corner to-morrov The Rev. Jonathan C. Day has installed several sewing machines in Labor Temple ourteenth street and Second avenue thich are to be used in making garment for the Red Cross. Materials are being supplied by the women's organizations of a number of churches and the sewing is being done by men who have heretofore It was announced yesterday that $5,000 has been sent by the American Red Cross to the International Red Cross committee at Geneva, Switzerland, to be used in defraying the expenses of the prisoners' buinformation concerning wounded prisoner to their families and vice versa. The bureau also transmits funds to prisoners.

WIFE SUES CARMAN WITNESS. Edward P. Bardes Ordered to Pay Alimony.

Edward P. Bardes, who testified at the trial of Mrs. Florence Carman to the effect that he saw a woman in white on the lawn of the Carman home on the night of the murder of Mrs. Lulu D. Bailey, was made a defendant in a suit for separation in the Supreme Court, Long Island City, yesterday. His wife appeared before Justice Clarke and obetermination of the litigation Mr. and Mrs. Bardes were married or her and she was compelled to return to her home in Long Island City. A child was born to her last July. Mrs. Carman, accompanied by her husband, her daughter Elizabeth, and her counsel, George M. Levy, left Freeport yesterday for Ravenrock, Pa., for a rest. Levy refused to say before leaving he would apply for an early husband failed to provide for

SENDS ROCK ISLAND LETTER.

Bondholders' Committee Defends Its Conservation Work.

The Wallace-Central Trust Company bondholders' committee has sent a letter to the Rock Island depositing bondholders in response to inquiries received and which is intended to correct misapprehenof Walsh, who was responsible for the appointment of Warden McCormick, whose The letter says foreclosure proceedings. The letter says the committee's only object is to secure the actual delivery of stock to the bondholders at the earliest possible momen and that neither the con any suits against the old management of the railroad for restitution. This, the letter explains, cannot be done until the stock is freed from the lien of the mort-gage, which will be after the foreclosure. The suggestion that the trustees pur-chase the pledged stock of all the bond-holders is declared to be legally impossible

"Nothing can be more baseless and ir consistent," says the letter, "than the charge that your committee is acting in the interest of the old management when the sale under the foreclosure will render valueless all the stocks of the holding companies and turn over to the present bondholders complying with the plan stock of the operating company."

$10,000 FOR BELGIANS Anti-Catholic Party Is Revealed by Row in Ranks

parently knew nothing of this transaction. One of the "P's" organizers is accused One of the "P's" organizers is accused of offering to sell the support of the order to Sulzer and his American Party for $10,000. The offer apparently was rejected, for Sulzer was not indorsed. Two weeks ago the "P's" of the various lodges were informed that the candidate for Governor approved by the leaders was Whitman. Whitman.

The meeting was attended by about 150 men who are the "masters" of their respective units. Forrest reported that there had been a secret investigation of the records of the candidates of all par-proved candidates were all Republicans, except Homer D. Call, Progressive nomi-nee for State Treasurer.

Those "P's" who had not been let in reached a climax in the recrimination of Hough against Forrest.

also said to have bought recently a paper called the American Ciffzen, published at Orange, N. J., and to have scattered 100,000 copies of it. It asks the voters to turn down Gov. Glynn. Sample ballots bearing only the names of condidates approved by the "P's" have also been circulated. The "P's" have the usual secret society number of grips, passwords and oaths. One of the things the members have to swear to is that they will vote called the American Ciffzen, published their office when they were only a block away from their office when they were only a block away from their office when they were only a block away from their office when they were only a block away from their office when they were only a block away from their office when they were only a block away from their office when they were only a block away from their office when they were only a block away from their office when they were only a block away from their office when they were only a block away from their office when they were struck down from behind. The black bag containing the payroll, $3,768.67, was snatched from Benton's hand.

Benton's hand.

Benton struggled to his feet while Stated in pursuit of the two men who had attacked him and his companion. A crowd to the chase at Thirtieth street and their office when they were only a block away from their office when they were only a block away from their office when they were only a block away from their office when they were only a block away from their office when they were only a block away from their office when they were only a block away from their office when they were only a block away from their office when they were only a block away from their office when they were only a block away from their office when they were only a block away from their office when they were struck down their office when they were only a block away from their office when they were struck making the full amount collected to date $246,997.63.

Contributions acknowledged yesterday by Jacob H. Schiff for the New York State Board of the American Red Cross aggregated $2,554.08, making a total to Hall. This meeting indorsed Whitman, the ticket approved by the names of condidates approved by the "P's" have also been circled to the "P's" have the usual secret society number of grips, passwords and oaths. One of the things the members have to swear to is that they will vote the ticket approved by their society.

'WIFE" OF DR. FLOWER | CATHOLIC CLUB PAYS HELD ON DRUG CHARGE

Woman and Aged Man Said to Many Prelates and Laymen At-Have Tried to Smuggle

Morphine to Him.

A woman who said she was Mrs. Lillian A woman who said she was Mrs. Lillian Flower, 52 years old, wife of Dr. Richard C. Flower, the mine promoter who is awalting sentence for larceny in the Tombs after being arrested in Toronto last week at the end of a chase lasting eleven years, and a man who said he was thomas McEnery, 75 years old, a mining engineer of 366 West Thirtieth street and a captain in the civil war, were held in Catbolic Club tendered a recention to the Right Rev. Partick J. Hayes, newly consecrated Bishop of Tagaste and Bishop Auxilliary of New York at the clubhouse, 120 Central Park South, last night. Several hundred members and many prominent clergyman heard the new Bishop greeted by Michael J. Mulqueen, President of the Catbolic Club tendered a recention to the Right Rev. Relief Fund, making a total of yesterday, charged with conveying mor-phine into the prison while visiting Dr

Mrs. Flower is to be arraigned for further examination in court to-day, as she asked for an adjournment in order to get a lawyer. McEnery was held for Special Sessions after he admitted through is lawyer that he had the drug, which, he said. Mrs. Flower had given to him for her husband. Neither furnished ball and both went to the Tombs.

McEnery appeared first at the prison during the visiting hour with a permit to see Dr. Flower, who has been under the care of the prison physician, Dr. Perry Lichtenstein. When Keeper McHugh searched the well dressed old man at the oner gate he found a small paper pack age filled with a white powder in Mc-Enery's pocket. He denied knowing what it contained, but Dr. Lichtenstein said it eld 30 grains of morphise. McEnery's lawyer in court admitted to Magistrate Campbell that it was mor-phine, but asserted that it had been given to McEnery by Mrs. Flower to take to her husband as "medicine." When Mrs. Flower entered the Tombs When Mrs. Flower entered the Tombs half an hour later she acknowledged to Warden Hanley that she knew McEnery, but denied that she had entrusted him with the narcotic. A search of her ciothing by Mrs. Aupperle, a prison matron, revealed a cloth pouch sewed into the lining of her heavy overcoat. Dr. Liohtenstein said it held 1,000 grains of mortenstein said it held 1,000 grains of mor-phine. Mrs. Flower insisted that she kept for her own use. it for her own use.

It was her first visit to Dr. Flower in jail. She said that she had come here on Wednesday from Toronto, where she was living with Dr. Flower at the time of his arrest. She said she was staying at 304 West Twenty-eighth street, but refused to disclose her maiden name or any of the details of her earlier life. Dr. Flower was divorced from his previous wife several

D. F. PERSCH SUED FOR DIVORCE.

Indicted Broker Makes No Defence The trial of a suit for divorce against Donald L. Persch, the broker who was indicted in 1910 because of the disappearance of $110,000 of United Copper stock, owned by F. Augustus Heinze, from the Windsor Trust Company, was heard yesterday by Supreme Court Justice Glegerich. The plaintiff was Mrs. Helen Huey Persch, member of a wealthy Philadelphia family, who testified that after she married Persch in Camden fourteen years ago they lived in an elaborate apartment on Riverside Drive, and when her husband got into trouble she moved to a modest flat and took in dressmaking. She has refused to accept aid from her The trial of a suit for divorce against She has refused to accept aid from he parents and asked no alimony from

The chief witness for Mrs. Persch was Walter Althouse, who said he saw Persch with other women. Justice Giegerich re#### served decision. DE LUXE MARVELS DESCRIBED.

Philadelphia Book Dealers Find Good and Bad in Farmer Volumes. Philadelphia book dealers who had a favorable opinion of the kind of de luxe volumes James Farmer and Col. Bill Hartley sold occupied the witness chair all day yesterday and answered dispassionately burning questions as to the worth of this Shakespeare, that Fielding

There were several laughs, as when one dealer said he found different paper in the front and back of a single volume of Farmer's Oscar Wilde. One also heard of a Shakespeare issued at Denver from photographic plates of an English photographic plates of an English orig-inal and other marvels of bibliogenesis. A bookkeeper testified that Glenn Farmer paid $1,000 for a Pepys Diary that was afterward sold for more; but in general the testimony was that the Farmer books sold mostly at $100 a volume were worth about $30 a volume. The trial continue

BECKY EDELSON ACQUITTED.

TARRYTOWN, N. Y., Oct. 29.—A jury here to-day acquitted Becky Edelson, having been out only twenty minutes. Before Miss Edelson finally selected a jury to her liking it was necessary for the court to send out policemen to bring in citizens who might qualify. Her tudes citizens who might qualify. Her judgment of men was proved, however.

Miss Edelson did not call any witnesses n her own behalf, but instead summed up for the jury. She said she had the right of free speech and told the jury plain words that no matter whether convicted her of disorderly conduct, she could return to "John D.'s town" and speeches, as would others work-

make

BISHOP HAYES HONOR

tend Reception Following Consecration. The members of the Catholic Club tena captain in the civil war, were held in Catholic Club, who paid a high tribute $500 ball each in the Tombs police court to the honored guest. The new Bisnop in responding to President Mulqueen's address, said that he regarded the tribute accorded him not merely as a personal one but as one of esteem and respect to his high office. Mayor John Purroy Mitchel, Borough President George W. McAneny and Comptroller William Prendergast congratulated Bishop Hayes in the name of the people of the city of New York and spoke of the city's aim to cooperate with the church in upbuilding the citizenship of the me tropolis. At the conclusion of the addresses Bishop Hayes personally received and gave each guest his blessing.

mong those present were Bishop omas F. Cusack, Bishop Henry Gabriels of Ogdensburg, N. Y., the Right Rev. Mon-signori Joseph Mooney, John Edwards, John J. Kean, Francis H. Wall, Edward McKenna, Charles McCready, Henry A Brann, Patrick J. McMackin, Charles Cas-sidy and John J. Dunn. There were also present Borough Presidents Lewis H. Pounds of Brooklyn, Maurice J. Connolly of Queens, Charles J.

Among

McCormack of Richmond and Douglas Mathewson of The Bronx, Fire Commis-sioner Robert W. Adamson, Alfred M. Barrett, Daniel F. Cohalan, Victor J. Dowling, Leonard A. Giegerich, Michael J. Drummond, Nicholas F. Brady, John B Mayo, Thomas M. Mulry, Edward J. Gave-gan, George W. Loft, Henry Helde, Henry Ridder, Eugene A. Philbin, Luke D. Stapleton, Cabot Ward, John G. Agar, John S. Carey, Stephen Farrelly, Charles V. Fornes and Roger Foster.

RECEPTION AT ART MUSEUM.

Tercentenary Commissioners Guests

of Metropolitan. The Metropolitan Museum of Art gave a reception last evening in honor of the New York Commerc al Tercentenary Comnission and the official guests of th

The following were present: Dr. George F. Kuntz, vice-president of the commis-sion; Samuel W. Fairchild, chairman; George W. Burleigh, Arthur Williams, Dr. Christian F. Reisinger, Louis Annin Ames, Chancellor Edwin Ellsworth Brown r. Peters, R. T. Haines-Halsey and Henry

WIFE LEAVES BROKER $1,000.000

Edith Gibb Kimball, wife of W. Eugen Kimball, a broker, of 5 Nassau street, Manhattan, was filed for probate in the Surrogate's office here to-day. It disof an estate of $1,000,000. left to the husband after the necessary expenses of administration and the funera ave been paid.

Mrs. Kimball was a daughter of John Gibb of Mills & Gibb. She lived with her husband at their beautiful country place at Glen Cove in the Red Spring colony. She died at New Canaan, Conn., Septemrisited Bloomingdales the other day accompanied by mother, father and sister. It was his first visit to a BIG store, and he showed his delight by cooing and prattling. Bloomingdales was the store selected to outfit Master George with his FIRST REAL CLOTHES. Father and mother have learned through personal experience that Bloomingdales is THE store. While here they did not forget their own needs and were particularly interested in our collection of attractively priced Blouses, including those of Crepe de Chine and Chiffon, in the newest styles and featuring the new roll collar, at $4.98. Also in our very dainty Crepe de Chine blouses at $2.98.

MASTER GEO. WHITELEY

Bloomingdale S 59th to 60th St. Lex. to 3d Ave.

% Per MONTH UPON PLEDGE OF PERSONAL PROPERTY

THE PROVIDENT LOAN SOCIETY OF NEW YORK

MANHATTAN Courtlandt Ave., cor. 148th Street Fourth Avenue, cor. 25th Street Eldridge Street, cor. Rivington Street Seventh Ave., bet. 48th and 49th Sts. Lexington Ave., cor. 124th Street
Grand Street, cor. Clinton Street
East 72d St., bet. Lexington & 3d Avs.
East Houston St., cor. Essex St.

Graham Avenue, cor. Debevoise St.
Pitkin Avenue, cor. Rockaway Ave.
PER CENT. CHARGED UPON LOANS REPAID WITHIN TWO WEEKS FROM DATE

AUTO HIGHWAYMEN GET $3.768

Four Robbers Escape After Attack

on Clerks in Street.

Automobile bandits who hunt down the weekly payroll held up two messengers of the Stanley Soap Works in West Thirtieth street, near Eleventh avenue, yeareday and got nearly $4,000? There were four bandits in the holdup and it occurred in broad daylight, a half hour before noon. The four motoring highwaymen must have known the route the clerks took each Thursday from the New York County National Those "P's" who had not been let in day from the New York County National on the second secret convention began day from the New York County National to talk rebelliously and threaten expolitions. The squabble has grown until it avenue, to the soap works at the Hudson sures. The squabble has grown until it River and West Thirtleth street—a route they had been taking for years,

The clerks, Cyril J. Stapleton, 22 years old, of 385 Sackett street, Brooklyn, and Most of the anti-Catholic "literature" with which the State has been flooded in the last few weeks is said to have been sent out by the "P's." Mr. Haines is also said to have bought recently a paper also said to have bought recently a paper specified by the said to have bought recently a paper specified by the said to have bought recently a paper specified by the said to have bought recently a paper specified by the said to have been in the employ of company for twelve and fourteen years, specified by the said to have been in the employ of specified by the said to have been sent out by the said to have been sen

Eleventh avenue, but the robbers kept their pursuers sufficiently at bay with their flourishing pistols to enable them to run to Twenty-ninth street and Jump int. an automobile that was waiting for them

The other two men of the band, one act ing as chauffeur, were waiting for the two with the money. The machine, said to be a Ford car without a license number, sped

> Just as the Youth is bent The Maid's inclined, 'Tis Love Insurance Soothes the mind. LOVE

INSURANCE a novel by Earl Dorr Biggers, author of Seven Keys to Baldpate. $1.25 net. At all Booksellers.

The Bobbs-Merrill Company, Publishers

NEW YORK'S PRIVATE SCHOOLS

YOUNG MEN AND BOYS.

CUTLER SCHOOL.
No. 49-51 East 61st St.
From Kindergarten to College.
r Sport. Indoor Games.

For Boys, Opens Monday, Oct. 5. 606 MADISON AVE., NEAR 62D ST.

THE KOHUT SCHOOL FOR BOYS, Riverdale-on-Hudson. 367 Kingsbridge. A country day and bearding school for younger boys. HARRY J. KUGEL, Prin.

LAWRENCE SMITH SCHOOL FOR BOYS. 23 EAST 65TH STREET. Clement Lawrence Smith. A. M., Principal

RIVERDALE COUNTRY SCHOOL 14 Acres, near Van Cortlandt Pk, at 253d St. Day & Boarding Boys, F. S. Hackett, Head-master. Intimate teaching by Scholarly Men.

COLLEGIATE SCHOOL FOR BOYS. A College Preparatory School with Strong Primary and Junior Grades YOUNG LADIES AND GIRLS.

Kindergarten, Elementary, High School and College Prep. Boys' Elementary Dept.

BOTH SEXES. ETHICAL CULTURE SCHOOL.
Central Park West and Sixty-third Street.
From Kindergarten to College, Athletic Field.
Open Air Department.

HORACE MANN SCHOOL. Teachers College, Columbia University, High School for Girls. Elementary for Boys and Girls. Opens Sept. 28. B'way and 120th st. The Brown School of Tutoring, 239-241 W for boys and girls. No classes. All study supervision. Two years' work in

HAMILTON APPROVED BY N. Y. STATE REGENTS.

FOR BOYS, 599 West End Av. S. W. nor. 89th St.

HOW PHIMARY TO GOLLEGE ENTRANCE.

Office hours, 9—1 TEL. 6802 RIVERSIDE.

FOR GIRLS, 601 West End Av. N. W. cor. 89th St.

LESSON'S PREPARED AT THE SCHOOL.

Special and General Courses.

College Certificate.

SUSINESS COLLEGES-BOTH SEXES. NEW YORK-New York City.

PRATT SCHOOL—02-94 West 45th St. Individual Instruction day evening. Shortband. Bookkeeping. Stens-type and Secretarial departments.

Private Schools

THE SUN maintains a most efficient Educational Bureau.

This complete service is absolutely free of charge Accurate and unbiased information given to all inquirers.

This service will prove of valuable assistance in selecting the proper school for placing your boy or In writing give sufficient details so that intelligent advice can be

SCHOOL-COLLEGE AND CAMP BUREAU

New York

G. A. L. DIONNE, 331 W. 70th S' Col. 3396. College Preparatory. Very small groups. Individual Attention. 11th Year, Oct. 184.

BVING SCHOOL

35 W. 84th St.

Boys from 6 to 20, All Departments.

No home study for boys under 15.

MR. CARPENTER'S SCHOOL FOR BOYS $10-512 West End Ave. Tel. Col. 4390. 14th Year Opens Oct. 5, 1914. Outdoor exercise 1:30 to 4 all winter.

HARNARD SCHOOL FOR BOYS.
Fieldston, West 242d St. Boys may remain all day, including Sat'y. Study hour. Tennis Courts. Athletic Field. Kind'g to Collega

DE LANCEY SCHOOL FOR GIRLS. West End Ave. & 98th St. Tel, 4120 River

RIVERSIDE SCHOOL. 879 West End Ave., Corner 1934 St. Rindergarten, Elementary, High School and College Preparation, Tel. 940 River.

THIS DIRECTORY APPEARS DAILY & SUNDAY. RATES ON REQUEST, THE SCHOOL, COLLEGE AND CAMP BURFAU, N. Y. SUN, N. Y. CITY. FOR BOTH SEXES. NEW YORK CITY.-New York.

Special and General Courses. College Certific Office hours, 10—4. Tel. 2239 Riverside.